MISSION STATEMENT

We are a faith-based Catholic community whose members are enriched by the celebration of the Sacraments and opportunities to deepen our prayer lives. Guided by the Word of God and family values, we strive always to be a beacon of light for the lost, the lonely, the marginalized, and all those seeking the truth as we walk in the footsteps of those first disciples of Jesus and our patron St. Polycarp.

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners of Saint Polycarp,

As you listen to the Gospel of the 17th Sunday this weekend, you will notice that the disciples were asking Jesus to teach them how to pray. Jesus, of course, taught them the powerful and the only prayer, the Our Father. For over two millennia, this prayer has been prayed by the Church. However, it was only until the Second Vatican Council that the whole community of worship could pray it loudly with the priest at Mass, because before the Council the priest alone prayed the prayer of the Our Father at Mass. The revision to this liturgical reform reflects one essential Catholic teaching: prayer and worship are both private and communal. They embrace both the vertical and horizontal dimension of the Cross, because they are about the love of God and the love of neighbors. That is, they direct our heart vertically to God and horizontally to others.

The Our Father contains two parts. The first part focuses on glorifying and praising God as our Father. What a humbling privilege and a sacred honor to have God as our Father! The second part focuses on God's providing us humans with our basic needs, and His calling us to forgive our offenders, as we accept His forgiveness. The Our Father expresses who God is, and who we are as His children. We are made in the imago Dei (in the image of God).

Moreover, as you and I gather to worship and to praise God this weekend, I invite you to extend your love to our newest staff or family member, who just returned from a teaching position in Mexico. Our new staff is Sister Jessica Corral Lee; she will oversee the English/Spanish Faith Formation and RCIA (Rites of Christian Initiation for Adults). Sister Jessica will present herself at all English and Spanish Masses this weekend. Please stop by to greet and to welcome her into our family of Saint Polycarp. In addition, please stop by to support our RCIA team who are promoting and registering those who desire to become Catholics or those who desire to complete their sacraments of Christian Initiations.

Lastly, to have God as our Father and to have others as our brothers and sisters, I am so joyful to learn that the Hispanic DMA youth group just went on a weekend retreat. Ninety-five (95) young people total, not including the adult chaperones. I am grateful for the leadership of Father Luis and the parents for forming our youth in the Catholic faith. I hope that other youth groups in our parish strive to deepen their faith and friendship through retreats, prayers, and spiritual gatherings.

With my brother priests and staff, I thank all of you for your continued support and love of Saint Polycarp. I hope you like the resealing of the main parking lot in our parish. May God grant you joy and a restful summer.

PLENARY INDULGENCE

On the occasion of the 2022 World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly, the Church grants plenary indulgence.

This means that the faithful obtain remission of their sins' punishment.

They can obtain it: for themselves, or for the souls in purgatory.

How can I get it?

You can obtain a plenary indulgence doing the
FOLLOWING ACTS ON JULY 24:

I am an
elderly person:

Participating in Rome's or the dioceses' World Day.

I am elderly person, but I have

It is enough to follow the World Day by watching it on television, radio or online.

I am not an
elderly person:

By visiting or who are alone. It is a work of mercy!

These acts must be

Saint of the Week

Saint James the Apostle is also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater to distinguish him from the other James in Jesus' group of twelve. Most of what we know about Saint James is recorded in the New Testament. He and his brother John were collected by Jesus along the sea of Galilee. Matthew 4:18-22 tells the story of Jesus calling first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew and then the sons of Zebedee. In Mark 3:17 the brothers receive a nickname from Jesus who calls them "sons of thunder" because of their many extreme reactions, like that in Luke 9:54 when they offer to call down fire on a Samaritan village. Saint James was part of Jesus' intimate circle, a witness to the Transfiguration, the resurrection of Jarius' daughter, and the agony in the garden of Gethsemane. In A.D. 44 Herod Agrippa had "James, the brother of John, killed by the sword." (Acts 12:2) He is the only apostle whose martyrdom is written of in the New Testament.

According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela, Spain where his relics were rediscovered in 9th century. This tradition has sometimes been attributed to a passage in the Song of Roland which tells of St. James appearing to Charlemagne in a dream, prophesying that Charlemagne would conquer the Moors in Spain. This was followed by a vision of stars which if followed would lead to the saint's lost tomb. In the Middle Ages Compostela was a hugely popular pilgrimage site. The saint's relics continue to rest in the cathedral there and one can still undertake the pilgrimage.

WHEN I CALLED, YOU ANSWERED

Some of us have that friend about whom we are constantly discovering new things. Maybe we've known this person for ten or even twenty years, and one day at lunch we'll find out they're a direct descendant of a dead president or they once met a major celebrity.

"You never asked," they'll say with a shrug.

As annoying as this can be, it makes perfect sense, doesn't it? We never asked. There is something strangely sacred about the act of asking for something. It requires humility. It requires grace. It requires us to be awake, to be aware, to be vulnerable.

Too often we fall into a pattern of entitlement, even when it comes to information. We go through life thinking that a great cosmic conveyor belt of what we want is going to roll on past us, and we'll barely even have to extend our arms. We read our Bible and we hear all these amazing promises from the Father who loves us, and we get sort of complacent. He's got this, we think, and we shut our eyes to take a snooze on the road trip of life, confident that someone else is going to look out for stop signs and wrong turns.

It's true: God's got this. He is going to take care of us. But He wants us to be in relationship with Him. He wants us to be an active, receptive participant in our own salvation. See his patience with Abraham's entreaties on behalf of the righteous of Sodom: He wants to answer, not simply to tell.

He wants us to stay awake for the drive.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP OUR FAMILY PRACTICE OUR FAITH EACH DAY?

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.
